Country Grocer Cobble Hill rolls up their sleeves and constructs gingerbread village for seniors.

Cobble Hill, BC (December 1st, 2011) – Karen Underwood, Country Grocer Cobble Hill Senior Bakery Clerk, has the Christmas spirit and knows how to give back.

In November, Karen started baking and constructing an entire Christmas Village made from gingerbread. The display sits at Country Grocer Cobble Hill for all customers to see and enjoy throughout the Christmas Season. This is Karen's twelfth year building and constructing the Christmas Village for seniors.

"We appreciate all the hard work and volunteer hours Karen puts into this initiative", says Country Grocer Director, Peter Cavin. "Each year, the gingerbread village is different which makes it so impressive".

Just before Christmas the village is dismantled and delivered to various organizations in the Cowichan Valley for an ultimate Christmas treat. Organizations such as Cowichan District Hospital, Cowichan Lodge, Sherwood House, Sun Ridge Place, Gate House, Wedgewood House, Cairns More and many more benefit from the tasty treats.
